Please Note: The Protected Health Information (PHI) enclosed is being sent after appropriate authorization from the individual or under circumstances that do not require authorization. It has been disclosed to you from a designated record set whose confidentiality is protected by state and federal laws including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) regulation (45 CFR part 160 & 164, subparts A & E) and the Washington State Health Information Act (RCW 70.02). These records may have further protection for sensitive information as follows; federal regulations (42 CFR part 2) prohibit any further disclosure of drug and alcohol abuse treatment information except with specific written consent of the person to whom the information pertains or the parent or legal guardian of a minor child to whom it pertains, unless otherwise permitted by federal law. A general authorization for the release of information is NOT sufficient for this purpose. State law (RCW 70.24.105) prohibits any further disclosure of this sexually transmitted disease information, including HIV/AIDS, without specific written consent of the person to whom the information pertains, or the parent or legal guardian of a minor child to whom it pertains, unless otherwise permitted by state law. A general authorization for the release of information is NOT sufficient for this purpose.
